

LEARNERS COMPETENCES

The framework operationalises the 'Cultural Awareness and Expression' (CAE) competence into four key dimensions, describing the specific capacities learners develop within an arts-based learning environment.

1. Creativity and Reflection

- Generating and developing original ideas through artistic processes.
- Approaching problem solving, risk-taking and decision making in reflective and ethical ways.

3. Personal and Shared Cultural Expression

- Expressing feelings, stories and identities through different art forms.
- Co-creating shared expressions with others, acknowledging and valuing different contributions.

2. Cultural Literacy and Intercultural Awareness

- Understanding how culture, history and power shape expressions and everyday life.
- Showing empathy and appreciation for diverse perspectives, stories and experiences

4. Collective Agency and Social Responsibility

- Using the arts to engage with social, environmental and political issues.
- Responsibility and care in public, digital and media spaces,
